SUPPLIER CODE OF CONDUCT

At Bally Ribbon Mills we are committed to the highest standards of ethics and business conduct. That commitment is reflected in our Values that guide us in our daily operations and business relationships: Accountability, Adaptability, Integrity, Excellence and Teamwork. The Supplier Code of Conduct sets forth the expectations we hold for every third party who works on our behalf and reflects the standards we set for our own employees. Suppliers are important to our success so we ask them to align their values and ethics with our own.

Compliance with Laws

We expect our suppliers to fully comply with all laws and regulations applicable to the operation of their business and their relationship with Bally Ribbon Mills.

Good Faith

We expect our suppliers to conduct all business in good faith, make all required disclosures, and avoid actual or apparent conflicts of interest (whether based on financial interests, family relationships, or any other circumstances).

Export/Import Control

We expect our suppliers to ensure their business practices are in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations governing the export and import of domestic and foreign origin parts and components and related technical data.

Anti-Corruption

We expect anyone conducting business on our behalf, including suppliers, from offering, making, or providing any improper payments of money or anything of value to government officials, political parties, candidates for public office, or other persons. We strictly prohibit facilitating payments intended to expedite or secure performance of a routine government action like obtaining a visa or customs clearance, even in locations where such activity may not violate local law. We expect our suppliers to comply with the anti-corruption laws, directives and regulations that govern operations in the countries in which they do business, such as the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and the U.K. Bribery Act.

Gifts/Business Courtesies

We expect our suppliers to compete on the merits of their products and services and not to use the exchange of business gifts, meals or entertainment to gain an un- fair competitive advantage. Our employees who are in any way involved in procurement decisions are subject to strict limitations and may not accept any business courtesy from a supplier with the exception of promotional items. In any business relationship, our supplier must ensure that the offering or receipt of any gift or business courtesy is permitted by law and regulation, and that these exchanges do not violate the rules and standards of the recipient's organization, and are consistent with reasonable marketplace customs and practices.

Human Trafficking

We expect our suppliers to adhere to regulations prohibiting human trafficking and comply with all applicable local laws in the country or countries in which they operate. Our suppliers must refrain from violating the rights of others and address any adverse human rights impacts on their operations.
